

Joining us now, DUP MP Ian Paisley Jr, who you saw [] in the report, Conservative MP John Penrose and Eamon Ryan, the [] transport minister. Welcome to you [] Ian Paisley, can I just ask you [] out for us the problems that you are encountering, [], at home in Northern Ireland now. Good evening. I cannot [] this is how it was [] to be but the first 34 days of this year have been [] and total [] for the citizens of Northern Ireland. MoD equipment hasn't been able to come []s, plants cannot come across because there is British [] on them for goodness' sake. Second-hand [] and second-hand furniture. There are [] taxes on [] products like second-hand mobile phones. Animals can't go backwards and [] for either trading or livestock purposes. PPE [] has been stopped, [] food has been reduced, [] fresh food has been stopped coming across. We have even had a [] of apology issued today by one of the government ministers to a [] who was stopped from coming [] because they thought she was exporting []. This has been an unmitigated [] I cannot imagine that is what they planned, but this is how it has worked out. And [] we have got to fix it and fix it [] because I don't want another 34 days this year [] the first 34 days.
